

Navigating North American Environmental Regulations: Simplified EPR Solutions with CGLOBAL

Are you placing products in North America and feeling the pressure of ever-evolving environmental regulations?

From Extended Producer Responsibility (EPR) for packaging and electronics to complex labeling and recycled content requirements, staying compliant can feel like a constant uphill battle.

CGLOBAL: Your Partner in North American Environmental Compliance.

We know regulations are not harmonized, can be complex, and may change.

CGLOBAL's interdisciplinary team can create a compliance program that will meet your unique needs. We are backed by the Landbell Group that has over 20 years of experience helping companies achieve compliance in multiple countries and product types. We also have a network of 350+ partners across 65 countries that provide invaluable local insights and resources.

Our Consultancy Program Offers:

- Clear Obligation Identification: We analyze your product portfolio and market presence to pinpoint your specific compliance obligations and outline clear action plans.
- Effective Compliance Management: We don't just identify obligations; we help you manage them effectively, providing pragmatic and tailored solutions.
- Authority and PRO Interaction: Let us handle the coordination with regulatory authorities and Producer Responsibility Organizations (PROs).
- Proactive Regulatory Monitoring: Stay ahead of the curve with our continuous monitoring of evolving environmental regulations and deadlines.
- Effortless Registration: We handle the process of registering your products across various state and provincial regulations.
- Simplified Reporting: Say goodbye to complex reporting requirements. We ensure accurate and timely submissions.
- Streamlined Invoice Management: We simplify the often-complex world of environmental compliance invoicing.

Beyond EPR: Holistic Sustainability Consulting

Our commitment extends beyond just Extended Producer Responsibility. CGLOBAL integrates sustainability principles with practical EPR solutions to foster successful and compliant operations. We provide insights and strategies related to:

- EPR: For packaging, electronics, textiles, tires, and more.
- EPR Adjacent Regulations: Post-consumer recycled content mandates, recyclability standards, and labeling requirements.
- Comprehensive End-of-Life Strategies: Developing holistic solutions that consider the entire product lifecycle.
- Emerging Regulations: We keep you one step ahead by actively monitoring new laws and trends to anticipate your future compliance needs.
